

Mrs Mary B. Caldwell Dead 1/27/1919

Mrs Mary B. Caldwell wife of the late Col. John H. Caldwell, one of the pioneer citizens of Calhoun county, died at her home in Jacksonville Monday at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Caldwell was born at Fayette, Tenn, in 1825, and came to Jacksonville in 1849. In the years that have followed she has been a loyal and faithful member of the Presbyterian church and her interest and devotion have been untiring she having taught the Sunday school for 50 years.

During the trying days of the Civil war, while her husband was away, serving as colonel of the Tenth Alabama regiment. Mrs. Caldwell's loyal work held the school together and she has been spared to see the fruits of her labor.

Mrs. Caldwell is survived by two sons, John M. Caldwell a prominent lawyer of Birmingham, and Col. Ed Caldwell, postmaster of Jacksonville. She also is survived by a number of grandchildren.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 2:30 from the Presbyterian church, the services being conducted by Rev. Thos. D. Cartledge assisted by Rev. R. T. Liston.

The active pall bearers were: D. J. Privett, A. L. Stewart, Clay Carrier, John B. Nisbitt, J. F. Crow, George Rowan, George P. Ide, C. E. Bondurant.

The honorary pall bearers were Col. H. L. Stevenson, J. C. Hammond, D W. Warlick, F. A. Weems, W. B. Arberry, D. Y. Goodlett, J. F. Rowan.